I made the effort but my standard's never good enough, is it babe?
I left you stranded, couldn't handle what you had 'til it's missing babe.
I'm comfortably numb how I am, without anyone in my hand
But I'll forever miss your fantasy

Oh, I'll be quiet
While you're out tonight
But don't crawl back crying
You were out of sight & mind
So thanks for nothing babe.

I set aside the fight but it poisoned like an august wildfire
When I put myself together I could tell our ties were divided
I can't help but push you away, I'm scared to repeat endlessly
But I'll forever miss your fantasy

[Chorus]

My eyes grew heavy and the room spins steady as I Tried my best to say goodbye for the very last time

[Chorus]
