Now we are here
In this perfect place

Everything seems full so daisy
The lazy moon is watching too
What a beautiful part
Let the night fade let those stars Â–

Witness what we have made
A celebration between two loving souls

Let them see the future through
Let us know, know how we are as one

It's a beautiful thing, this what we have begun
It's a wonderful thing, this is how I'd like us to stay

Stare at you each morning and each dawn that breaks away
It's a beautiful thing
Now I won't ask for anything more
This smile which is so fine so hard to ignore
Lets hold hands and run life through

Only thing I want it to be with you
It's a beautiful thing, this song is for you

You make me sing this song
So old and new

It's a wonderful thing and I owe it all to you.
My love, my shelter my own little world

My love is like a flying bird
Beyond air, unable to bear a day without your thought
Baby your perfect that's why I love you so much
Beyond compare
And rare to find
That's why I love you, can't get you out of my mind
Let us leave, let it all behind find a new home
Prove to

One another that we are of a new kind
Something incredible.
