Nothing to say nothing in me
empty box with a name
Here the questions the suggestions
Sit in suffering refrain in the refrain

Just say your on your own
Compassion never shows
Just say theres something more than yourself
You just can't have it

Am I crazy I'm not crazy
I'm just slipping away
Prime example how to handle
All this sorrow and pain

I felt a connection to something else
To something bigger than myself
I felt it pull away
It hasn't returned still to this day

Just say your on your own
Compassion never shows
Just say theres something more than yourself
You just can't have it

Nothing you could ever say
Would change the way I feel today
You can't make it go away

Just say your on your own
Compassion never shows
Just say theres something more than yourself
You just can't have it
Just say your on your own
Compassion never shows
