[TOMMY:]

What is mine, dear, will be yours
When the sun shines and when it pours
Summer, Winter, Spring and Fall
Fifty-fifty in ev'rything
Haven't got much, even that much to my name
Fortune's door shut, can't get in, but just the same

My ear for music, my feet for dancing, my lips for kissing
I'll share it all with you

My sense of humor, my disposition, my rosy future
I'll share it all with you

Someday, honey, I'll have money
You know what that brings
Furs and diamond rings
And besides those things
There'll be

kissing
I'll share it all with you

[WINNIE:]

My head for thinking, my face for smiling, my hands for cooking
I'll share it all with you

My understanding, my loving nature, my good intentions
I'll share it all with you

I'm not twenty but there's plenty Underneath my hat
I know where I'm at
And on top of that
There'll be

kissing I'll share it all with you
