[1st verse:]

A thousand times a day, sweetheart, I think of thee
A thousand golden thoughts of you, assure me
That you have come to linger in my memory
Surrounded by all that's sweet and pure

[chorus:]

I think of the springtime when I think of you
Springtime and sweet scented flowers
I think of the sunshine when I think of you
Sunshine and happy hours
I think of the angels when I think of you
Angels and heavens of blue
I'm thinking of
A wonderful love
When I'm thinking, just thinking of you

[2nd verse:]

A thousand times a day I hold your hand it seems
And whisper once again how much I love you
A thousand times each night I see you in my dreams
Surrounded by angels from above
