We're all alone and we're sad
Like two little babes in the wood
But things would not seem so bad
If we weren't quite so good
If we cuddled up as we should

You're lonely and I'm lonely
So why can't we be lonely together?

The night is young and while we grow older
We can forget, crying on each other's shoulder

The sky's cloudy 'cause we're lonely
But soon we'll see a change in the weather

Two hearts beating as one
Can be mis'rable and still have a lot of fun
