Verse 1:

Yesterday, My best friend passed away
On what will be remembered as a cold n dark day
My heart stood still, For a moment i could barely breath,
No way....Is he really gone?

Life passed in a blink of an eye,
I cried and cried the day he died
Now talking daily to your kids on skype Jack, man you should be fucking alive We all miss you, kiss the sky for me will you, And make it Blue as you walktrough
The heavenly gates now await you I'm grateful man, i've met you, And treasure our moments together Not enough, but hell what was the matter with me Why didn't i see it all clear, only now, i feel i just woke up, But your asleep, come on.... this is way too deep I'm talking to myself again while inside i weep

Chorus:

Hey,I'm talking to myself right now Do you hear me?
Are you here with me yeah?
Hey, I'm talking to myself right now I'm afraid... i don't feel so good no!

Verse 2:

These feelings I have inside
These feelings make me wanna lose my mind Every day I wake up, morning depression I gotta get through but it shakes me up So hard, Inside I bleed, but life goes on, life is hard We all get scarred,
but the trick is to get ourselves together And show we got heart! Yeah, now the sun is shining Yeah,.
now the clouds are signing, Yeah, I regained the power, recharged myself, for my darkest hours So you can too,

you just can't allow it, you gotta be brave when sinking downwards Fight your demons,
fight the dark power, good will overcome, You lose, you win some, Believe and let no one else tell you different,
Pursue your dreams every instant, follow your heart in the distance And you will shine in existence

Chorus

Hey,I'm talking to myself right now Do you hear me?
Are you here with me yeah?
Hey, I'm talking to myself right now I'm afraid...
i don't feel so good no!

Hey,I'm talking to myself right now Do you hear me?
Are you here with me yeah? Hey, I'm talking to myself right now I'm afraid... i don't feel so good no! Hey, I'm talking to myself right now!!!!
