Sometimes I want to talk to you
Just tell you what Iâ€™m living through
If I could, if I could, would share
All these moments that you never live again
You have to understand that I miss you everyday
I need your voice on the telephone
I need to know that youâ€™re not alone

Now, you are gone and I stay
In the middle of my dreams
Waiting for a sign
Waiting for a sign of you

You may know how is missing what
You ever wanted but you never got
I know you hear what Iâ€™m saying now
I know you felt what Iâ€™m feeling now before
You have to understand that I miss you everyday
I need your voice on the telephone
I need to know that youâ€™re not alone

Sometimes I want to talk to you
Sometimes I want to be with you
I need your voice on the telephone
I need to know that youâ€™re not alone

Now, you are gone and I stay
In the middle of my dreams
Waiting for a sign
Waiting for a sign of you
