Friday night, something's not right
My behaviour's changed, the darkness is drowned in light

Was it my broken promises that made you fight?

Or did the life inside your head just get too tight?

I'm a persistent son of a b*; yeah I know
Oh, oh, oh, so and so

You will save me tonight
You're in the hands of a lover
Stuck between what I know
And all the beautiful things we'll discover
A secret passage, a hidden staircase
My love for the birthmarks in your face

For the birthmarks in your face
No proof to prove it, no witness you can trust
A heart of fire, your soul filled with lust

I'm a persistent son of a b*; yeah I know
Oh, oh, oh, so and so

You will save me tonight
You're in the hands of a lover
Stuck between what I know
And all the beautiful things we'll discover
A secret passage, a hidden staircase
My love for the birthmarks in your face

For the birthmarks in your face
For the birthmarks in your face
