Tell them that the house is not for sale
We're still livin' here
how come nobody can tell?
They're taking all the furniture, movin' our things
Come on little honey put your head on my knee
Tell them that the house is not for sale

And calm down, calm down, calm down,
calm down, calm down, calm down

Do you remember when we even bought this thing?
I danced across the wooden floor and you sign the lease
What ever happen' in the car that night?
What happen' in the car that night?
Tell them that the house is not for sale

Calm down, calm down, calm down,
calm down, calm down, calm down,
calm down!

Tell them that the house is not for sale!
We could grab a couple of sheets yeah,
Give them quite a scare!
I remember lyin' on the bedroom floor,
You were holding me honey, kissing my soul
tell them that the house is not for sale

And calm down, calm down, calm down,
calm down, calm down, calm down
calm down! Calm down!
