Are you looking for love?
Are you searching, searching for
The place you've been dreaming of?
Are you feeling alone?
My love is song that stretches out it's arms

Did you think that you could find love?
Did you think I wouldn't wade though the mud?
And we find ourselves so lost in all we do
I don't care I'll get through

I want to write out our love on every wall
I want it seen from skylines; I want it seen by all
And how did you think I found you
I saw this in a vision; I saw this in my sleep

Did you think that you could find love?
Did you think I wouldn't wade though the mud?
And we find ourselves so lost in all we do
I don't care I'll get through

I'll get through
I'll get through

What do you want?
What do you need?
Whatever it is, this is all your after

Did you think that you could find love?
Did you think I wouldn't wade though the mud?
And we find ourselves so lost in all we do
I don't care I'll get through

Did you think that you could find love?
Did you think I wouldn't wade though the mud?
