Brothers in one, ageless at heart
Shoulder to shoulder, we'll never die
Legions tonight, hell, born and dark
Souls are alive as time marches on

Glorious might, sons of the Gods
Tyrants of loud, our hearts red, black
We breathe in terror and breathe out the light
Live to survive, we are one tonight

We live, we die, we kill, we rise
We live, we die, we kill, we rise

Rise

Burn through the night, wolves are a pack
Forgotten sons and daughters alike
Lords of forever left stealin' from God
One live to live, we are taking it now

Evil bows tonight

We live, we die, we kill, we rise
We live, we die, we kill, we rise

One soul, one night, one heart, one life
One soul, one night, one heart, one life

Rise up!
