Anything you want, Anything you want, my dear

I will make it work
I will make it happen
Nothing is in the way

I'll show you want I mean tonight Tonight my dear,

And I know you're not the same I see it in your eyes
And you went far away
Tell me what you need,
I don't care if it is impossible
I could figure out
To be with you my dear.

I can take you up
To the moon and back my dear
Going all at once
Coming back to see that it's all for real
I told you that I was in it for the kill (for the kill)

And I know you're not the same
I see it in your eyes
I know we're not the same
I feel it in your arms
And when I'm far away
I don't care if it is impossible
I could figure out
To be with you my dear.

And I know you're not the same I see it in your eyes
And you went far away
Tell me what you need,
I don't care if it is impossible
I could figure out
To be with you my dear.

Anything you want Anything you want my dear
