[Logik]

Make the quick decision recognition or the limelight

{Fuck} all gimmicks I rather connect like websites

Visions took flight of all the money and the jiggy

But when it crashed back to Earth the true worth was shown to me

Indepents circle means will find ways to work it

On the next EP you see how Audio Researched it

Without big stars but we keep it tight like constillations

Half-ass cats, more wigs split than segregation

But never the less, my thought process on progress

When the vinyl's pressed, got no time to ever second guess

Get the picture, we make moves like Bobby Fisher

All over the map, bumrushing cats like the militia

Coming back home, we're analyzed and scrutinized

Trying to make a name, cutting us off like we were circumsized

Peeps are respected in the words are reflected

Walking on the path they paved, never deflected

[Eclipse]

In these thought process, I'mma bless y'all with the real from the onset

Classify me as a prospect, I deserve all my props kid

In this collective, can't y'all see from no angles

And respective, found the road to success without directions

More success perhaps, y'all regress because y'all possess 6 shots per gat

Six, six sides of rap, you're sick man, collapse

Like neurotransmitters sharper than my rest synapse(?)

And ask yourself, how's that?

Word from the wise cat, you should have studied me better

My cranial beretta, mentally inclined to stack cheddar

Under, most circumstance, my foes are clean cutters

Bustin' b-boy stance, I vanquish to enhance this

Rap isht, Islam establish in my mob cause havoc

Yours are wrapped in plastic, and mine (aaaaah) is patented

Lyrically hazardous, in regards I won't get blasphemous

Sinking O.D., you must be a masocist

CHORUS

"Keep on walking, keep on talking

Running through this brand new world"

"Keep on walking, keep on talking

Running through this brand new world"

[Kinetic Energy]

I make {niggaz} get a world of silent treatment, use kinesis

To throw away pieces

while you wait for Jesus I be the reason hell freezes

The wind is breezeless, and souls are ghost and trapped in avalanches

Changing standard, my anthem to fulfill the universe's answers

Intellects reject it with the method, of what the hell's {niggaz} saying

Instead of rewinding, they ignore the fact that it was genius in the making

Those not ranking, I'm barely scraping from the plate that dodges my fork

???? ??, inspired freezes, slap you stupid like a whore

Frustration grazes metamorph through phases, hit your flow out the door

Shut down more warmth than solar, energetic song but it's just the norm

I might be on, so I grimace pivot the valley of the thorns

Live by the book embedded in my chest and in my heart is sworn

[Science]

Medical prose cleverly written, virtuoso spitten

Samples of periodical flows is leaking like a kid is Steadily awaiting for the entry of a third leg, release

In the beginning there is prophecies and revelations

Lyrical exposed signals the first time situation

The basic evaluation, it prepares us for the thousands we sold

Two and a half in the cities and public housing

Let the truth be told, I must admit it surprising

But in God we trust, it gives us a push more like a bumrush

Regulating the speed while still holding the clutch

We never go Dutch, withhold no grudge

Doing shows when other {motherfucker} wouldn't even bother budge

See I cut you off, so call me John Deere when I get here

I used to think about maybe rising, now I'm crystal clear

Give me percentage of your cabbage and I'll take one share

While shifting the gear like speed while you're still in the rear

'Cause it's a must where we're living in this shadow of fear

And when the tires keep in switching to a Current Affair

I'm still on the air

CHORUS

"Keep on" (scratched by DJ A-Trak)

"Keep on like Erykah or etc"
