Another day in California
Let's get connected to euphoria
The Ferris wheel goes round
And this life I'm living has me upside down
Another day in California
Siri can you help me find a way
Cause I'm lost on this information highway

Tell me what you what
And I'll try to find it
Tell me what it is that drives you crazy
Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
Why can't you be my girl
You're just my iGirl

Another worthless conversation
Lost in Californication
My head's stuck in the sand
From this bargain basement promise land
Another useless conversation
Siri can you help me find a way
Cause I'm lost on this information highway

Tell me what you what
And I'll try to find it
Tell me what it is that drives you crazy
Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
Why can't you be my girl
You're just my iGirl

Lipstick sunsets, violins and roses
She's all mine and I'm the only one who knows it
Red heads, brunettes, don't forget the blondes
They can take a number cause I'm already gone

We touch our pads, we touch our phones
We find ourselves here all alone
We found the future
But forgot each other, each other

Tell me what you what
And I'll try to find it
Tell me what it is that drives you crazy
Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
Why can't you be my girl

Tell me what you what
Tell me what it is that drives you crazy
Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
Why can't you be my girl
You're just my iGirl

Tell me what you want
Tell me what you want
