I'm a wandering man
Even as I sing
A journey of rainbows, highs and lows
You and me, such a long time ago
When I was just a pauper
With you I had it all
All the halls are empty
And the stone is freezing cold
The candles dripping memories
Oh, what is left to believe

When everything means something
I'm the King of Nothing
When strangers turn to princes
Castles fall to pieces
And here I sit upon my throne
And I'll keep reigning all alone
I'm the King of Nothing
I'm the King of Nothing

I'm a restless heart
And on this ledge I stand
Watching over kingdoms
Of no man's land
You used to be my queen
In a gold and silver gown
For you I would give anything
For you I would give up this crown

When everything means something
I'm the King of Nothing
When strangers turn to princes
Castles fall to pieces
And here I sit upon my throne
And I'll keep reigning all alone
I'm the King of Nothing
I'm the King of Nothing

Too many secrets, too many turns
Too many bridges, bridges have burned
If there's one lesson left to be learned

It's over my head, it's over my head

When everything means something
I'm the King of Nothing
When strangers turn to princes
Castles fall to pieces
And here I sit upon my throne
And I'll keep reigning all alone

When everything means something
I'm the King of Nothing
When strangers turn to princes
Castles fall to pieces
And here I sit upon my throne
And I'll keep reigning all alone
Cause I'm the King of Nothing
I'm the King of Nothing
I'm the King of Nothing
I'm the King of Nothing
