Last 3 months down by the bay
Days on the boardwalk and we'd dance the night away
All of those memories, they put my mind at ease
And nine months seems so far away
It's frozen in my mind
And these seasons take their time

Next summer never came
Just thunder and the rain
It went straight from spring to fall
With no word from you at all
Next summer never came

An endless ocean of my dreams
These promises are all that's left inside of me
I sent a message out to sea
Hoping this melody would bring you back to me
Days go marching on
With no word from you at all

Next summer never came
Just thunder and the rain
It went straight from spring to fall
With no word from you at all
Next summer never came
Winter's running through my veins
Yeah we caught this wave to ride
Thought this moment would survive
But next summer never came

I'd rather hear you shout
Than to hear the sound of nothing, oh nothing
I'm drowning in this doubt
This tide rolls in and out and I can't breathe, I can't

Next summer never came
Just thunder and the rain
It went straight from spring to fall
With no word from you at all
Next summer never came
Winter's running through my veins

Yeah we caught this wave to ride
Thought this moment would survive
But next summer never came
Next summer never came
Next summer never came
It never came

Yeah we caught this wave to ride
Thought this moment would survive
But next summer never came
