I'm under water trying to breathe
Haunted by these memories
And would you please forgive me if I Laid aside the rocks and stones from all these memories

And if I may come down, come down again from your angry winds and waves
Then I am washed, I am washed, I'm washed, washed away

And yesterday I saw you like an angel
In the company of angels in the wind
And your (?) gather around me in my heart,
I will never be apart from them again

And I know that darkness and the cold will try to find a way
I am washed, I am washed, I'm washed, washed away

Like a soldier who fights
Redemption comes with a prize
Why can't we celebrate
All that we've done, all that we've made
She couldn't stay

And all these angles, that cut me to my soul
They wash away

I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake
I'm wide awake

Washed away
Washed away
Washed away
Washed away
Washed away
Washed away
