Looking out through bars of steel
I wish that I could only feel the power of your wicked ways
And bask within your glowing gaze

So tell me what you want
So that I can act it out
'Cause I will travel down for you without a doubt
Tonight I just wanna feel your touch
And stand by your side
Forever under deep with you I'll be,
'Til death divides

From the start, it was you
Who captivated and spoke of the truth
You turned me on and turned me right
It made me feel oh so light

So tell me what you want
So that I can act it out
'Cause I will travel down for you without a doubt
Tonight I just wanna feel your touch
And stand by your side
Forever under deep with you I'll be,
'Til death divides

So tell me what you want
So that I can act it out
'Cause I will travel down for you without a doubt
Tonight I just wanna feel your touch
And stand by your side
Forever under deep with you I'll be,
'Til death divides
'Til death divides
