The boy next door has really got me dreamin

But I remember when he was a little demon

He used to pull my hair

But I didn't really care

I loved him even then

When he was twelve and I was ten

The boy next door used to take my toys away

But now he's busy keeping all of the boys away

He's jealous as can be

But that's alright with me

He told all the other guys

Stay away if you value your life

INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE

The boy next door wants to move across the street

He wants to get married gonna make my life complete

So if you're looking far

For a boy in your home town

The one that you're looking for

Just might be the boy next door

Oh the boy next door
