Mirror mirror on the wall
I bet you didn't know that I was gonna' fall
I like the way you look back at me
And all the things you'd like me to see
I never knew you'd shine so bright
I never knew you'd share this light
I'm hoping you were getting through
The scenes they turn me black and blue

If you wanna' stay high,
I think that we should go
Our futures not sure
But there's something that we know

If you wanna' stay high,
I think that we should go
Our futures not sure
But there's something that we know

Mirror mirror on the wall
I bet you told 'em all that I was gonna' fall
In spite I see you looking back at me
I lie that seems a tale of seas
I never thought I'd see you smile
The book I doubted for a while
And now I read this story through
The vanity of me and you.
