I'm trying to figure out the rules, I don't lose
I'm tested, I've already seen some bad dudes
Do what's in ya nature, don't let it break ya
Plan to win if they're raisin' the stakes up
Now you can take a few bumps and bruises
I'm confident, I'm tellin' ya, you will not lose this Life force is dwindilin' and you're barely alive
Time to let go of the wheel and let your heart drive

Alexa Vega:

Just let your heart drive
(Just let your heart drive, c'mon, c'mon)
Just let your heart drive

Count on family, 'cause they come through
Even when you're in a spot with the odds against ya
I'm no rookie, I was taught to step up
If I fall down, Gramps told me to get up
My generation is prepared to face ya
Life can be a struggle but you do what it takes ya
You try to be clever but you're not that wise
You'll never be a winner if you don't let your heart drive

Alexa Vega:

Just let your heart drive
(Just let your heart drive, c'mon, c'mon)
Just let your heart drive

C'mon!

Alexa Vega:

Just let your heart drive
(Just let your heart drive, c'mon, c'mon)
Just let your heart drive
Let it drive, let it drive, one more time here we go)
Just let your heart drive
