Snowflakes biting at my nose
Jack Frost at my toes,
Hope that I can catch you soon before I catch a cold.

This box is a mystery
Whatever could it be?
Hope you wrapped a kiss for me underneath this tree

And I will crash this party now hello,
I'm drunk, I'm cool this Christmas party is too.

Chestnuts roasting on that fire,
Christmas punch in hand.
The more punch you give to me the crazier I am.
Christmas cheer is spreading fast my cheeks begin to glow.
Could you hold my drink for me under this mistletoe?

And I will crash this party now hello,
I'm drunk, I'm cool this Christmas party is too.
And I will crash this party now hello,
I'm drunk, so what? This Christmas party sucks.

Wore my favorite Christmas tie, you your favorite dress
I would have a blue Christmas without you I confess
She leans real close and whispers nice, sweetly holds my hand
Hate to be the Grinch she says but were just Christmas friends.

And I will crash this party now hello,
I'm drunk, I'm cool this Christmas party is too.
And I will crash this party now hello,
I'm drunk, so what? This Christmas party sucks.

Yeah, this Christmas party sucks.
Yeah this Christmas party sucks
