An open road, high hopes, fast times
Live your life in overdrive
Waiting to be next in line
To gain what's absent all your life
Fill the gap, rise up, revive
Fake images are brought to life
And shouldn't we be all alike?
So share the hype, get hypnotized

Stare into the eyes of will
To make you feel at home
A veil of lies will hide away
The frailty of all

I guess they try to infect me
I hope it can not affect me, distract me
The outside shines, the inside's sick to death Reject! Cause once you're trapped, there is nu turning back

Stare into the eyes of will
To make you feel at home
A veil of lies will hide away
The frailty of all
Give away your selfworth
Fit in like the rest
Does it make you feel alive
Or are you just undead?
