What are you waiting for?
Pick up your guns and go to war.
Do as the old man says.
Unleash the hell they wanted for.
While suffering severe.
A call for blood for wasted tears.
Stride along or stand aside.
Don't touch a nation's foolish pride.
Wave your flag and celebrate.
The pain you caused by blinded hate.
Stars & stripes you're dying for.
While skulls & bones are suited more.
The stars & stripes you wave should be turned to skulls
& bones.
So wake up in time.
And prevent your old man's crime.
Look him in the eyes.
And see what's driving him inside.
Condemn his plans to attack.
And give your flag it's value back.
Smoking out one hole ain't lighting up the world.
Left, right, left, right.
Wave your flag and celebrate.
The pain you caused by blinded hate.
Stars & stripes you're dying for.
Skulls & bones are suited more.
Line up and die!
