Take back what you Said!
When you told me, you love me
Those were just foolish words
So you can feed them to the birds
Think that all your games
The trust that I wanted
You could never give to me
And this is what I could never get from you
Please, Please I'm running out of time now
This will be the last time
You can't give your trust to me
Please, Please I'm running out of sympathy
This will be the last time
You can't give your trust to me Baby
The pain on your face, when I said I wouldn't wait
Still broke my own heart just as much as yours
So Blame it on your face, one last time
This is our last night tonight Baby
Please, Please I'm running out of time now
This will be the last time
You can't give your trust to me
Please, Please I'm running out of sympathy
This will be the last time
You can't give your trust to me Baby
I'm running out of time now
You know because
This is our last time, This is my last time
Giving you trust you have my Hand
When your eyes feels wet it seems
The only words I could say
The only words I could say
Were
Take back what you Said!
When you told me, you love me
Those were just foolish words
So you can feed them to the birds
Think that all your games
The trust that I wanted
You could never give to me
And this is what I could never get from you
I kissed you goodbye and I wave my goodbye

I gave you my trust, but your trust, give me yours
Take back what you Said! Take back what you Said!
