She says we need to talk tonight
These things never turn out right
I know you know
How this story goes

I saw the fire in your eyes
I thought we that we could burn out bright
But these marks across my heart
Are just signs of one bad start

You stole my heart
Then gave it away
Broken and useless
With nothing to give, but
But now you fall to pieces right when I leave
Sing It.
I don't want the west coast anywhere near me
Take me for a ride, baby bring me back to jersey

All of the lies I heard before
Why don't you just spill me one more
Before it starts to hurt

What was I really thinking then
You know that I can't just pretend that
You didn't mean one word you said
I guess it's how this ends

You stole my heart
Then gave it away
You left me speechless
With Nothing to say, but
But now you fall to pieces right when I leave
Sing It.
I don't want the west coast anywhere near me
Take me for a ride, baby bring me back to jersey

I never thought that you'd forget
Everything that we were meant to be
And I never thought we'd see the day
We hoped that we would never have to see

You stole my heart than gave it away
(I don't want the West Coast anywhere near me
Take me for a ride baby bring me back to jersey)
You left me speechless with nothing to say
(I don't want the West Coast anywhere near me
Take me for a ride baby bring me back to jersey)
But now you fall to pieces right when I leave. Sing It.
I don't want the West Coast anywhere near me
Take me for a ride. baby bring me back to Jersey.
