Not gonna listen to a word you say
Have to ignore your right of way
The ties that bind
The lies that blind
Closing in, out of time
Only receive what you want to allow
Anything more is just fucking around

They're all coming down on me
I don't wanna hafta act my age
They're all coming down on me

Mom and da the boss and work
The girlfriend thinks I'm a jerk
Saddle up saddle up, calling me a horse
I'm not gonna run your motherfuckin course
I can't help that I haven't changed my mind
Don't tell me it's a matter of time
