You're not about to change the way I feel,
There's nothing special 'bout your offers and deals
Don't go there, should have taken their advice.
You're #1, biggest mistake of my life.
Yeah alright get out of my life
Your tits developed but your mind had to wait
Why'd I call back after that first date
Put a finger in you felt something wrong
All my friends could see it all along
I wanted more for me than you
And I always had better things to do
The truth you hide somewhere inside
Every word you spoke, every breath a lie
[Chorus:]
I learned the truth
That you're always gonna be untrue
I learned the truth
That you're always gonna be untrue
You failed the test/ disgraced your face/ sealed your fate
And you're always gonna be untrue
You leave a bad taste
And you're always gonna be untrue
You're gone
I'm happy now and you're still you.
Tied with the wind for how many men you blew.
Guess it's my fault I took you at your word.
Your words worthless, bullshits all I heard.
