Look at me now
I got you, I want you
Move with me now
I'm feeling you so deeply
Showing you how to really complete me
Take you away with me(X2)

The first song that I ever wrote is about you
This one goes out to me
But now that I've got my head wrapped around you
You were never lost, you were looking for me
And all along, you knew this song
Would someday come to prove you wrong
In love, is where I wanna be

Look at me now
I got you, I want you
Move with me now
I'm feeling you so deeply
Showing you how to really complete me
Take you away with me(X2)

Today I wrote another song about you
I hope it hits you perfectly
You know I'm singing with my heart on my shoulders
My head is lost, can you find it for me?
And all along you knew this song,
Would someday come to prove us wrong,
In love, is where I wannabe.

Look at me now
I got you, I want you
Move with me now
I'm feeling you so deeply
Showing you how to really complete me
Take you away with me(X2)

And all along, we knew this song
Would someday come to prove us wrong
In love, is where I wanna be.

Look at me now

I got you, I want you
Move with me now
I'm feeling you so deeply
Showing you how to really complete me
Take you away with me(X2)
