"Fire Into Ice"

When I came I was a stranger
Spanish boots just walking by
At your house I saw that danger
So alone and terrified

Can't you see me bleeding?
Can't you hear me call?
Can't you see what you were reading
What I've written on the wall?

Nothing ever scares me like the silence
Turning all your fire into ice
Candles that kept talking by the violence
Twisted words another sacrifice

When I came I was much stronger
Touching souls and tasting moon
Shadows now seem so much longer
Selling raise from door to door

Don't you know I'm meaning
Don't you care at all
Don't you find that make believing
Ways we're tryin' to learn to fall

Nothing ever scares me like the silence
Turning all your fire into ice
Candles that kept talking by the violence
Twisted words another sacrifice.
