When I close my eyes
I can still recall that night
I just close my eyes and turn,
Turning out the light
Darkness brings you back in sight

Why did you have to go?
Won't memories of the night
Show up in a dream that won't come true?

Things that lovers do can make me
Just a friend for the night
'Til darkness turns into light
How can I hide my tears when I cry?

When I close my eyes
I hear your voice call my name
I just close my eyes and try,
Try to hear again
Deep inside your words remain

Now when you are gone
Three words have left my life
I only use them when I write a song

Words that lovers use can make me
Just a friend for the night
'Til darkness turns into light
How can I hide my tears when I cry?
