"This Noise"

You painted black in my eyes, It's running through my heart
It's become a chronic decease, I am on repeat
I'm walking home in the night, And I'm looking for a fight
To satisfy my need... Open up and bleed

You said: you wish me well
Well I hope you burn in hell
When I've gone out of my mind
This noise is all that you'll find

You are the ghost when I'm asleep, That hunts me in my dreams
The poison in my drink, That makes me shudder
I'm waking up in such a mess, On unknown adress
Like so many times before, My body is sore
The only thing you gotta keep, is faith in love
When that's fading away, We got nothing more to say

You said you wish me well
Well I hope you burn in hell
When I've gone out of my mind
This noise is all that you'll find

Yeah Yeah Yeah
