"Where are you"

Where are you tonight
I try to call you many times I'm so sad without you

I'm on my way downtown
I can't catch a smile
I feel loneliness
without you

why you dont love me?
why it hurts so much?
why I feel this pain?
why I love and love again?

Dark streets empty places
I visit the park where I met you the first time

Tears are running over my face
my eyes are blind
forever

I hate myself for loving you
I feel nothing more I fall down on my knees
and cry your name

I lost my mind I lost control
I feel loneliness without you tonight is where tears are falling down

Whitout you
Whitout you
Whitout you
Whitout you

...and you are gone
