Dear doctor
I've got a friend
He needs some help
He needs to mend his mind
He's going crazy all the time
Help him find an honest reason why
Bad people live and good people die
This ain't no world to raise a child

Doctor says
My friend you're healing
Doctor says
My friend you're healing

He says it's so strange
I find it easier to pass the blame
We're all the same
There's never going to be a change
We make mistakes
We make them every single day
I just want live life
I don't wanna throw it all away

Doctor says
My friend you're healing
Doctor says
My friend you're healing

Doctor says
My friend you're healing
Doctor says
My friend you're healing
Doctor says
My friend you're healing
