

Secret & Whisper "Warrior"

Visit "Warrior" on MotoLyrics.com

I am thunder from silver moon and sky
Born of a daughter, creation of great spirit of wonder
The warrior, the warrior ventures on his own
The warrior, the warrior, child of moon and water

Turn around and let the wind's direction guide you
Fear no sound, your ancestors are right beside you

Dark spirit will fear me 'cause I'm a warrior
The warrior, the warrior ventures on his own
The warrior, the warrior, child of moon and water

The shaman asked for you, your vision will come true

Turn around and let the wind's direction guide you
Fear no sound, your ancestors are right beside you
Wild untamed and gentle child of Southern Arrowwood

A legend tells of a modern warrior
Who will rescue our people from evil spirits

Turn around and let the wind's direction guide you
Fear no sound, your ancestors are here beside you
Wild untamed and gentle child of Southern Arrowwood

I am thunder
I am made from silver moon and sky
