Everyone stand and stare in that long acheiving line,
Yes we'll go up and you'll be left behind,
This world as we know it will come crashing down,
Look into the sky and him you have found!

Don't give up. the war hasn't started,
Don't give in, just wait 'till it begins,
We're coming down to start this war,
And don't forget us,
Order 204!

This world might feel like it's a black abyss,
Just hold on and get a piece of this,
It's worth going through hell for,
It's worth all you have got and more!

Don't give up. the war hasn't started,
Don't give in, just wait 'till it begins,
We're coming down to start this war,
And don't forget us,
Order 204!

We'll come down like the Calvary,
That's just the way it's ment to be,
And once you see us, there's nothing to deny,
Once you see us, you'll kneel and cry.

I won't give up. the war just started,
I won't give in, I believe I can,
Now that they're down and have started this war,
I won't forget them,
Order 204!
