I've been doing lots of thinking lately
You need to know it's all about you you you

It's fair to say
You've been doing lots of thinking lately
And we both know it's all about her her her
She can do no wrong

And if you're honest with me I'll be honest right back
I love the things that you've got you love the things that
I lack

When all you've gained begins to rust
And when your name decays to dust
I know
You'll show

And I stood there as the curtains drew
It's plain to see we were but fools
I know
We were ripping at the seams

I've been doing lots of building lately
I'm trying to build bridges over you you you

It's fair to say
You've been causing lots of chaos lately
It's clear that you don't care about me me me
And I think I'm done

And if you're honest with me I'll be honest right back
I love the things that you've got you love the things that
I lack

When all you've gained begins to rust
And when your name decays to dust
I know
You'll show

And I stood there as the curtains drew
It's plain to see we were but fools

I know
We were ripping at the seams

Sailing the commotion
Drowning in devotion

Our voyage has been failing
It will not be plain sailing from here

Sailing the commotion
Drowning in devotion

Our voyage j has been failing
And it will not be plain sailing from here
And it will not be plain sailing
When
All you've gained begins to rust
And when your name decays to dust
I know
You'll show

And I stood there as the curtains drew
It's plain to see we were but fools
I know
We were ripping at the seams
