Who will I become?
I want to be someone
Who helps someone else

What will be my name?
You named me inconvenience
You named me no one

You took away my breath
Before I breathed it on my own
You stripped me of my life
And then you left me all alone
You named me no one
But I wanted to be known

I am beauty, I am love
I am a girl sent from up above
I am laughter, I am joy
I am a treasure, a baby boy

You named me no one
But I wanted to be known

Who will sing my song?
Lyrics of nowhere places
And unseen faces
Who will be my voice?
A voice of desperation
I am someone

You took away my breath
Before I breathed it on my own
You stripped me of my life
And then you left me all alone
You named me no one
But I wanted to be known

I am beauty, I am love
I am a girl sent from up above
I am laughter, I am joy
I am a treasure, a baby boy

You named me no one
But I wanted to be known

Who will sing my song?
Who will be my voice?
Who will save my life?
My life is not a choice

Is it you? Is it you?

Please tell them...

I am beauty, I am love
I am a girl sent from up above
I am laughter, I am joy
I am a treasure, a baby boy

You named me no one
But I wanted to be known...
But I wanted to be known
