(Sky Saxon)

There she is a'workin' her yard

The flower lady and her assistant

Lilacs and poppies, blood-red flowers

A'workin' so hard till the day she dies

The flower lady and her assistant

The flower lady and her assistant

A yellow print dress, she outgrows the rest

CHORUS

A yellow print dress, she outgrows the rest

Working so hard right back in her yard

Lost in daydreams, forgotten by time

The flower lady and her assistant

She dances through life like a butterfly

Working so hard till the day she dies

The flower lady and her assistant

There she is a'platin' her yard

The flower lady and her assistant

Lilacs and poppies, blood-red flowers

Reaching, touching, touch the sky

A painted billboard that hides her yard

The flower lady and her assistant

The flower lady and her assistant

CHORUS

Just living in uncertainty

The flower lady and her assistant

Lilacs and poppies and blood

Red flowers forgotten and living

In uncertainty

The flower lady and her assistant
