Let me teach you how to move like a big money nigga

[Hook]

Get off the wall,
Won't you go and grab yourself a bitch or something
Go to the bar, the bar, the bar
Won't you spend that money like you rich or something
If you got it, spend something, whoa
If you got it, spend something, whoa
If you got it, spend something, whoa
Shit I probably got enough to lend something

These girls I'm the bachelor, y'all niggas been fronting Me, I prolly got it, but y'all ain't gonna spend nothing Ain't chucks how to loose it, shit is time to win something
I heard you ain't have a drink in your hands since 10
something
Standing on line, couldn't get in for nothing
Couldn't afford a bottle, you better chip into something Share with some ladies and watch you get into something
Oh nah, that's my bitch, go talk to her friend or something
Go get you a table, then you'll be able To have people sitting and watching the movie, cable
It's prolly too late to try to begin something
But I know if I got it, shit, I'ma spend something

[Hook]

Get off the wall,
Won't you go and grab yourself a bitch or something
Go to the bar, the bar, the bar
Won't you spend that money like you rich or something
If you got it, spend something, whoa
If you got it, spend something, whoa
If you got it, spend something, whoa
Shit I probably got enough to lend something

Now y'all saw them sparkles from a mile away
That shit tell you shit bout to get wild today

My aura will make a bitch give her vows away
My dominion will make a nigga take a smile away
We don't do what them regular thugs do, no
We be throwing money in regular clubs too
Got small face 20's, them regular dubs too
Getting positive love, and negative love too
These girls love me, know that I've been stunting Know it's got it when they see me, they know I'ma spend something
Lend something, leave with
I'm tryina get in something Proly wake up in the bed together around 10
something
