[Hook]

Girl I gave a lot to you, and I would have gave all I had to you

But I'm not complaining, I just try to make it work
And I think I deserve, for you to tell me where did we go wrong

Wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong,
Tell me where did we go wrong
Wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong,
Where did we go wrong
Wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong,
Tell me where did we go, tell me where did we go
Tell me where did we go wrong

Baby where we went wrong at?

I thought we was at the place where we belong at My late nights on the grind put some thoughts in your mind

That made you weak, but we supposed to be a strong match

You asked for it, I did whatever to get it
Cause I know them other niggas will do whatever to hit it

Our relationship, your friends will do whatever to split it Used to try to make you cheat, but I know you'll never admit it

Used to envy how I was treating you Tell you shit like "girl do your thing cause he ain't keeping you"

Yeah, I used to be a mac, but all that I've shut down
When I knew I was never deleting you
And it's crazy, the foul shit that people do
A bunch of drama and stress is what it's equal to
They say when the tide's in the water, too strong
You should get out, it might be too deep for you

[Hook]

Girl I gave a lot to you, and I would have gave all I had to you

But I'm not complaining, I just try to make it work
And I think I deserve, for you to tell me where did we go wrong

Wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong,
Tell me where did we go wrong
Wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong,
Where did we go wrong
Wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong,
Tell me where did we go, tell me where did we go
Tell me where did we go wrong

Used to think that the money would bring us closer
When I was broke you was doing what you supposed to
I started getting it, the shit got different
I should have knew you was a player when your friends started to coach you
You in the club with your team on your clean shit
Doing me dirty, with in the crib, with in the see shit
There you go, creeping with the enemy
The whole time I thought you really was into me
You pretend to be, a walked out, got in my car
And you tried to get in with me, and that offended me
All these years wasted, couldn't even face it Wouldn't never thought I'll have to find a replacement
No time to relapse, just give me my key back
And you can come tomorrow to get your shit out the basement
Yeah you can come tomorrow to get your shit out the basement, face!
