Standing in the rain all torn apart from a love that was lost in the dark without a light, it got me into your soul nowhere to go when my heart turned to stone

The nights went by without your gentle touch the pain and sorrow were just too much it feels like a priest is committing a sin now theres nothing left just like us when in

CHORUS:

what did i do, tell me why this isnt all the love, you and i you kept the other side hidden from me so what do i do with this pain you can't see Everywhere i go your voice isn't near i turn around hoping that youll be there with open arms and tears in your eyes seeing you return back into my life to dry up all the blood shed by me i cant even bear i cant even see im trying to heal the wounds, but i cant face the fact that youre not coming back

[REPEAT CHROUS TWICE]

I just stand in the room with those tears in my eyes i think of you while the hurt makes me cry you're the one that i love the one i adore you push and shove only to annoy only what you want so theres outta site youre an angel with eyes my guiding light begging and pleading that i wait and explain teasing me please no additional strain

This rain from heaven strikes you in vein memories haunt your soul you call my name so loud i hear it in a deep sleep i wake up in sadness i feel i cant breathe then i get on my knees with a cross in my hand asking above where does love stand should you live your life in fear or should i go on and drop my final tear [repeat chrous]

tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
