"Walk With Me"

Walk with me through the long and lonely night;
Walk with me, and my world is filled with light.
Here I stand, feeling lost and so alone.
Take my hand; don't desert me now,
Please don't hurt me now.
If you walk with me, though I know the road is long,
I'll get by, with your love to make me strong.
More by far than a guiding star above,
I long for you; walk with me, oh my love.

Somewhere the songbirds fly
In a clear, blue sky.
Only you and I, there together;
Love me, now and forever.

(Instrumental bridge)
Here I stand, feeling lost and so alone.
Take my hand; don't desert me now,
Please don't hurt me now.

If you walk with me, though I know the road is long,
I'll get by, with your love to make me strong.
More by far than a guiding star above,
I long for you; walk with me, oh my love.
I long for you; walk with me, oh my love.
