My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
When the stars begin to fall.
My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
When the stars begin to fall.

You will weep for the rocks and mountains,
You will weep for the rocks and mountains,
You will weep for the rocks and mountains,
When the stars begin to fall.

My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
When the stars begin to fall.

You will hear the shout of victory,
You will hear the shout of victory,
You will hear the shout of victory,
When the stars begin to fall.

My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
When the stars begin to fall.

My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
My Lord, what a mornin',
When the stars begin to fall.

When the stars begin to fall,
When the stars begin to fall.
