me say im sorry baby please hold me thus i know that you and i werent meant to be and if we do falter ill never surrender and its just sad that you never seem to see well if you go, ill miss you so badly that i cant proceed how to live or maybe i should learn how to pretend so im not feeling that this is the end thats why i say sorry for all that i have caused you its just that i love you and never thought you should be free we'll find ourselves later in the arms of some other im hoping he'll love you coz you deserve someone like him

no ill never ever love someone but you. but its too late, youre so far away no ill never listen to bibo bandits again coz i know that it wont make me a better man no ill never, never, never never listen (2x) never listen (4x)

ill never listen
