"Missing You"

It's killing me, how can this be
Why are you not here with me?
I'm so afraid to
Go on without you, all alone

Cause I'm missing you, I'm ready
I don't wanna let you go
When I close my eyes you're with me
I will never let you go, let you go

I'll never let these memories fade
I think about you every day.
Now that you see, hope you forget me
For all I have done.

Cause I'm missing you, I'm ready
I don't wanna let you go
When I close my eyes you're with me
I will never let you go

So it all comes down to this
There's so much about you that I miss
And these tears won't go away
Until I have a chance to say

Cause I'm missing you, I'm ready
I don't wanna let you go
When I close my eyes you're with me
I will never let you go
Cause I'm missing you, I'm ready
I don't want to let you go
When I close my eyes you're with me
I don't want to let you go

I'm missing you, I'm missing you.
