My iPod killed my girlfriend
Now I have lost my best friend
What am I gonna do now?

I lent her all my music
My girlfriend wasn't stupid
She must have turned it up too loud.

[chorus]
I guess the driver never thought
That my girlfriend would leave that spot
And now it's too late she got what she got.
If only she would have listened
She could have saved her pretty skin
My iPod took away my lovely girlfriend.

I'd like to know what song was
Playing when she got hit 'cause
It if was Nickelback they're dead.
I never thought when I lent
My iPod to my girlfriend
That we would never dance again,
Again, Again, Again.

[chorus]
I guess the driver never thought
That my girlfriend would leave that spot
And now its too late she got what she got.
If only she would have listened
She could have saved her pretty skin
My ipod took away my lovely girlfriend. (x2)
