Wake up my girl
I've got something to say to you
I've been knocked down
And I don't know what's left to do

I won't live my life,
Like I've lived my life before
I need to spread my wings
Before I hit the floor

I'm Terrified
I'm Terrified

Woke up this morning
With my hands across my heart
It's been this way
Since I decided we should part

It's not that easy
As I thought to let you know
I never thought that I
Could ever let you go
I'm Terrified
I'm Terrified

I'm Terrified
I'm Terrified

Wake up my girl
I've got something that I must say
Before I shed my skin
And throw it all away

I'm looking' for tomorrow
Not for yesterday

I'm Terrified...
I'm Terrified...
I'm Terrified...
I'm Terrified...
