He was a young man at the age of 25
Everybody knows him like the guy that never cry
His mother was working ev'ry night
She was a street flower
Like a star she's havin' fun
Look over yonder!!

His name was Paul, he was the king of the surfers
He was the king of the beach
Watching all the girls like a hunter
He wants to have some juicy time
With some of his friends
Everybody want to know your mother because...

You're the son of a bitch
Under the sun of the beach

All the guys have fun you
Cause you're the best they know
You're so nice, the best entertainer
All the sluts are looking at you
Everywhere you wanna go they wanna fo faster
Everywhere you wanna go they wanna fo faster
Everywhere you wanna go they wanna fo faster
All of them wanna see your mother because...
